

So I Go — Cooper Smithson

Intro: Am

Verse I:

Am E7
For years I've been a-travelling, just tryin' to waste my time
Am E7
For years I've been a-travelling, just tryin' to waste my time
C G Am E7
And I haven't any company 'cept for brightly lighted signs
Am E7 Am
What do I know? And will I ever learn?

Chorus:

Am E7 Am E7
So I go, dear, so I go
Am E7 Am
So I go, dear, never to return

Verse II:

If you sail without a map, then you're bound to crash ashore
If you sail without a map, then you're bound to crash ashore
Some days you'll find whisky, and others you'll find corn
What do I know? And will I ever learn?

Chorus:

So I go, dear, so I go
So I go, dear, never to return

Verse III:

When I hear those crickets chirpin', lord don't take me 'fore my time
When I hear those crickets chirpin', lord don't take me 'fore my time
All I need is one more morning, so give me one more night
What do I know? And will I ever learn?

Chorus:

So I go, dear, so I go
So I go, dear, never to return
