And now this house is

Am7

Someone else's

Dm

And we can look back

G7

But we can't go back

Hand on the banister

That I used to climb

When I wasn't tall enough

To reach up so high

When was the last time I

Fell asleep on that couch

And was picked up asleep

I'm too big for that now

(Instrumental Break) C Am7 Dm G7

Forgive me

For still lingering

This was the last place

I could still be anything

Now I'm all baked and molded

Into whatever shape I'm in

Living a life I

Didn't imagine

The person I was here

I almost don't recognize

Did I already die

Two or thirteen times
